Policies/Statements to Understand prior to Adoption

- All cats adopted from Save the Animals MUST REMAIN INDOOR ONLY CATS!!
- The adoption fee is $100. This goes toward the cost of housing, food and the medical care (spaying/neutering and other surgeries, vaccinations, fecal tests and deworming, FEFI & LST tests, medications, etc.) for our adoptables. You may choose to have a 1 week trial period prior to paying the adoption fee.
- If approved for adoption, you will receive a complimentary wellness exam to be used at Windcrest Animal Hospital within the first month of adoption. You will also receive a free bag of food. All further health care costs are your responsibility. Please understand that there are sometimes unexpected costs associated with owning a pet, in addition to their recommended routine bi-annual veterinary care.
- If for any reason you are unable to keep the adopted pet, you must return it to Save the Animals. The adopted must never be given to a shelter, sold, abandoned or euthanized for non-medical reasons (to be determined by a veterinarian).

I understand and agree to all policies set forth by Save the Animals Adoption Center.
